OCTOBER 2013

The Santa Fe Trail Amateur Radio

Club HAMFEST afforded an opportunity for hams to be introduced to The Salvation Army SATERN Communications Vehicle and radio community services provided. The event was at the Johnson County Fairgrounds, Gardner, Kansas Saturday, September 14th.

How better to draw community support than to serve the community by assisting in major charity fund raising events? TSA vehicle "106" & communications trailer provided emergency medical personnel supervisor Steve Lester KDØEKS a platform to direct a host of medical volunteers at the MS Bike Tour on Saturday & Sunday September 14-15th. Over 1,100 cyclists benefited by seeing the TSA EDS in action!

Opportunities to Train for the Emergency Disaster Service Abound:

SAFE FROM HARM EDS - October 17, 2013 - Raytown, Missouri

The Salvation Army's "EDS Safe from Harm" training will be offered at the First Baptist Raytown located at 10500 Missouri 350, Raytown, Missouri from 6:00pm - 10:00pm , Thursday, October 17, 2013. For more information, please call Jackie Madison or Deb Abner at 816-471-4337 .

"EDS Safe from Harm" training provides volunteers with training to assist those who work with children, youth, and vulnerable adults to remain in compliance with "EDS Safe from Harm" standards. Completion of this course, along with the course, "Introduction to Disaster Services" is required for all Salvation Army officers, staff, EDS and SATERN volunteers who wish to receive a Salvation Army ID badge. This badge is needed for Salvation Army deployment.

Disaster Food Services: Handling and Delivery: 4 Hour Training: The cornerstone of The Salvation Army's disaster program is mass feeding. This course prepares participants to serve on a mobile feeding kitchen and introduces them to the essentials of safe and sanitary food preparation. Who Should Take This Course: Any disaster worker who would like to serve in The Salvation Army's mass feeding programs.

Prerequisites: Intro to Emergency Disaster Services

Salvation Army Sends Emporia Disaster Team To Colorado. KANSAS CITY, MO (KCTV) - Officials in Kansas and Missouri assisted their neighbors to the west in Colorado following days of deadly flash flooding. The Salvation Army, Kansas and Western Missouri Division, sent a regency disaster services team to Colorado.

Salvation Army Officer Lt. Lynn Lopez and EDS volunteer Kay Mollett, both from Emporia, KS were in a Salvation Army disaster vehicle, also known as a mobile canteen.

The vehicle was stocked with food and water in an effort to provide meals to flood survivors and first responders.

The mobile canteen joined eight other Salvation Army mobile canteens assisting in Colorado.

"We're going to assist in any manner that we can," said Lopez. "We've been praying for the people of Colorado, where so many lives have been devastated."

Lopez says she and Mollett are honored to be called upon to help.

The two are expected to remain in Colorado for a week to 10 days.

Massive flooding has impacted 17 counties in Colorado, damaging or destroying thousands of homes and killing at least eight people.

So far, The Salvation Army has provided more than 20,000 meals and some 85,560 drinks to Colorado first responders, law enforcement officials and evacuees.

Salvation Army emergency disaster services personnel have provided first responders and evacuees of the Colorado floods with more than 10,000 meals, drinks and nutritional items.

The Omaha Salvation Army is on standby for manpower and equipment. The Salvation Army is currently providing disaster relief at the following locations.

Boulder

- Salvation Army teams provided more than 2,000 meals, drinks and nutritional items to first responders and law enforcement at the Boulder County Incident Command Post and continue to provide support today.*
- Personnel continue to provide support to evacuees at the Mapleton YMCA where Boulder County first requested The Salvation Army to provide assistance early Thursday morning.*
- Salvation Army teams distributed more than 36,000 bottles of water generously provided by corporate partner KingSoopers.*

Ft. Collins

- The Salvation Army will continue to serve meals at Timberline Church. The shelter will remain available long-term over the next 30-90 days. Salvation Army personnel have served more 2,130 meals, drinks and nutritional items to evacuees at this location since it opened Friday.*

Longmont

- The Salvation Army's Casper emergency disaster services team deployed to St. Vrain Memorial Building shelter and served more than 3,000 meals, drinks and nutritional items to evacuees yesterday.*

Jefferson County

- The Salvation Army continues to provide support the Jefferson County Incident Command Post.*
- Monday, Salvation Army personnel provided over 1,500 meals, drinks and nutritional items to first responders, bridge & road crews and law enforcement at this location.*

How to Help:

Monetary donations are needed to help The Salvation Army help those affected during the days of storm ahead and during long-term recovery. The Salvation Army uses 100% of your disaster donations in support of local disaster relief operations.
